What is the NYDC + Candoco Summer Residency?

It is a week long dance residency in August 2022
You would arrive on 7 August.

The residency would be 7-12 August 2022.
It is run by Candoco Dance Company and NYDC
(National Youth Dance Company).

Candoco Dance Company, a dance company for disabled and non-disabled dancers.

NYDC creates and performs dance with a large group of young dancers from all over England.

What is the NYDC + Candoco Summer Residency?

Free

The residency is free.

16-24

It is for disabled and non-disabled dancers aged 16-19, or up to 24 if d/Deaf or disabled.

It will be at the University of Warwick and Warwick Arts Centre.

You will stay in accommodation with the other dancers at the Summer Residency but you will have your own room.

What is the NYDC + Candoco Summer Residency?

We will provide all meals for the Summer Residency.

Everyone will need different support on the Summer Residency so we will talk to you about what you need and what works best for you.

Who is the residency for?

Disabled young people.

Your disability may be visible or invisible. It could mean that you have a physical disability, learning disability, that you are neurodiverse or lots of other things too.

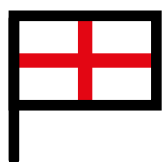

Non disabled young people.

Young people aged 16-19 or up to 24 if d/Deaf or disabled.

Young people who love to dance and have danced before.

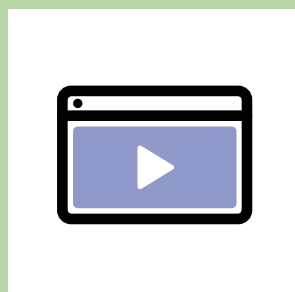

Young people who live in England.
