

About Candoco:

Candoco is the world's foremost inclusive dance company, bringing disabled and non-disabled people together. Candoco has been expanding perceptions of who can dance and what dance can be, since 1991.

Candoco's Board:

The board plays a central role in the life of the company and is responsible for working with the executive team to ensure the ethos, values and purposes of Candoco are upheld.

Candoco's board is made up of passionate individuals who are excited to support an ambitious team. Trustees should be open to working in a collaborative and dynamic way, acting as advisors, soundboards, and supporters to the team.

The Opportunity:

We are always keen to meet new Trustees and welcome expressions of interest all year round.

Successful applicants will join the Board and provide leadership and oversight to the company.

Being a trustee is voluntary - this means that trustees are not paid.

Trustees can claim travel expenses to attend in-person meetings from outside Greater London.

We want to hear from potential Trustees with the following areas of experience:

- Knowledge of the dance sector: commissioning, touring, artist support, and dance training pathways
- Arts, culture, and sport: breaking down barriers, growing talent, and supporting pathways
- Disability rights, equality, access and inclusion
- Arts in education: primary, secondary, and higher education
- Finance and fundraising
- Law and charitable governance
- Marketing, PR, and branding
- Audience development, digital engagement

As well as bringing this expertise, Trustees hoping to join Candoco would:

- Have enthusiasm for Candoco, its artistic work, mission and values
- Have a commitment to diversity and inclusion
- Be strategic and creative thinkers
- Bring good, independent judgement
- Have good communication and interpersonal skills

- Work effectively as a team member, with respect for others
- Act with impartiality, fairness and confidentiality
- Not be afraid to speak their mind – with tact and diplomacy
- Have the ability to advocate for the organisation
- Be open to relationship-building for influence
- Have a willingness to learn new skills
- Be prepared to commit to the time and effort this role requires
- Understand and accept the legal duties and responsibilities of the role

At Candoco, we value diverse voices and experiences. We also recognise that traditional routes into leadership positions are often inaccessible to disabled people and those from other marginalised communities.

We encourage individuals from all backgrounds, ages, and levels of experience to express their interest - your perspective matters.
